

Attention ... Don't miss these important African American historical films at the
Utopia Film Festival, Greenbelt MD
October 19 – 25, 2009

Black Soldiers in Blue (30 minutes)

Directed by Warren Bass

The hardships, heroism, and enormous contribution made by African-American soldiers to the Union victory in the Civil War.

*Saturday, October 24 at 12 noon at
the Greenbelt Arts Center*

Inside Buffalo (59 minutes)

Directed by Fred Kuwornu

Nicknamed the Buffalo Soldiers, the 92nd Division was an all African-American combat unit which fought in Italy during World War II. These men fought two wars at the same time, one against the Nazis, the other against the discrimination which forced their unit to be segregated from white soldiers

*Saturday, October 24 at 12 noon at
the Greenbelt Arts Center*

