

A NIGHT OF SPOOKY AND SPOOFY SHORT FILMS

Saturday, October 27 from 9:00-11:00 pm
at the Greenbelt Municipal Building

TICKETS: $5 AT THE DOOR

Code Blue

At Flatline Medical, it's all about the patient as long as you pay the bill on time. If you let your insurance lapse, you may lose more benefits than you bargained for.

Feliz Cumpleaños

Why does Valentino come back from every birthday with unexplainable bruises, scratches, and nightmares?

Epicac

Can a machine learn to fall in love?

The Jesse Brown Show

A fantasy in stop-action.

Texas Chainsaw Musical

Do you feel bored with your day-to-day routine? Pleatherface does. And he's got something to sing about it.

Dracula's Mother

Things are getting serious between Count Dracula and his fiancée, Lucy. But will mother approve?

Cyn

Two psychopaths take a young woman hostage. She may turn the tables on them, but who else is watching?

A Dream

An animated hallucinatory journey through post-traumatic stress.

Grandma Goth

A gold toothed, magenta-haired, 64-year-old woman takes us on a tour through her personal collection of morbid memorabilia

Full festival details available online at utopiafilmfestival.org, at the festival venues, and in The Greenbelt News Review.

