

A free monthly film series exploring vital social justice, environmental and animal rights issues.

Monday,
November 15, 2021

6:45pm Log on in advance via Zoom
Registration is required:
<https://tinyurl.com/ReelInMealNov>
7:00pm Film begins

Lesson Plan is a riveting film... documenting a 1967 World History class experiment designed to demonstrate how easily the Nazis used group dynamics to achieve group control prior to and during WW2. Some of the parallels to our own political realities are unmistakable.

View the trailer here:
<https://www.lessonplanmovie.com/lesson-plan-movie-trailer/>

Mark Hancock, one of the film's producers, will be present on a Zoom link for discussion.

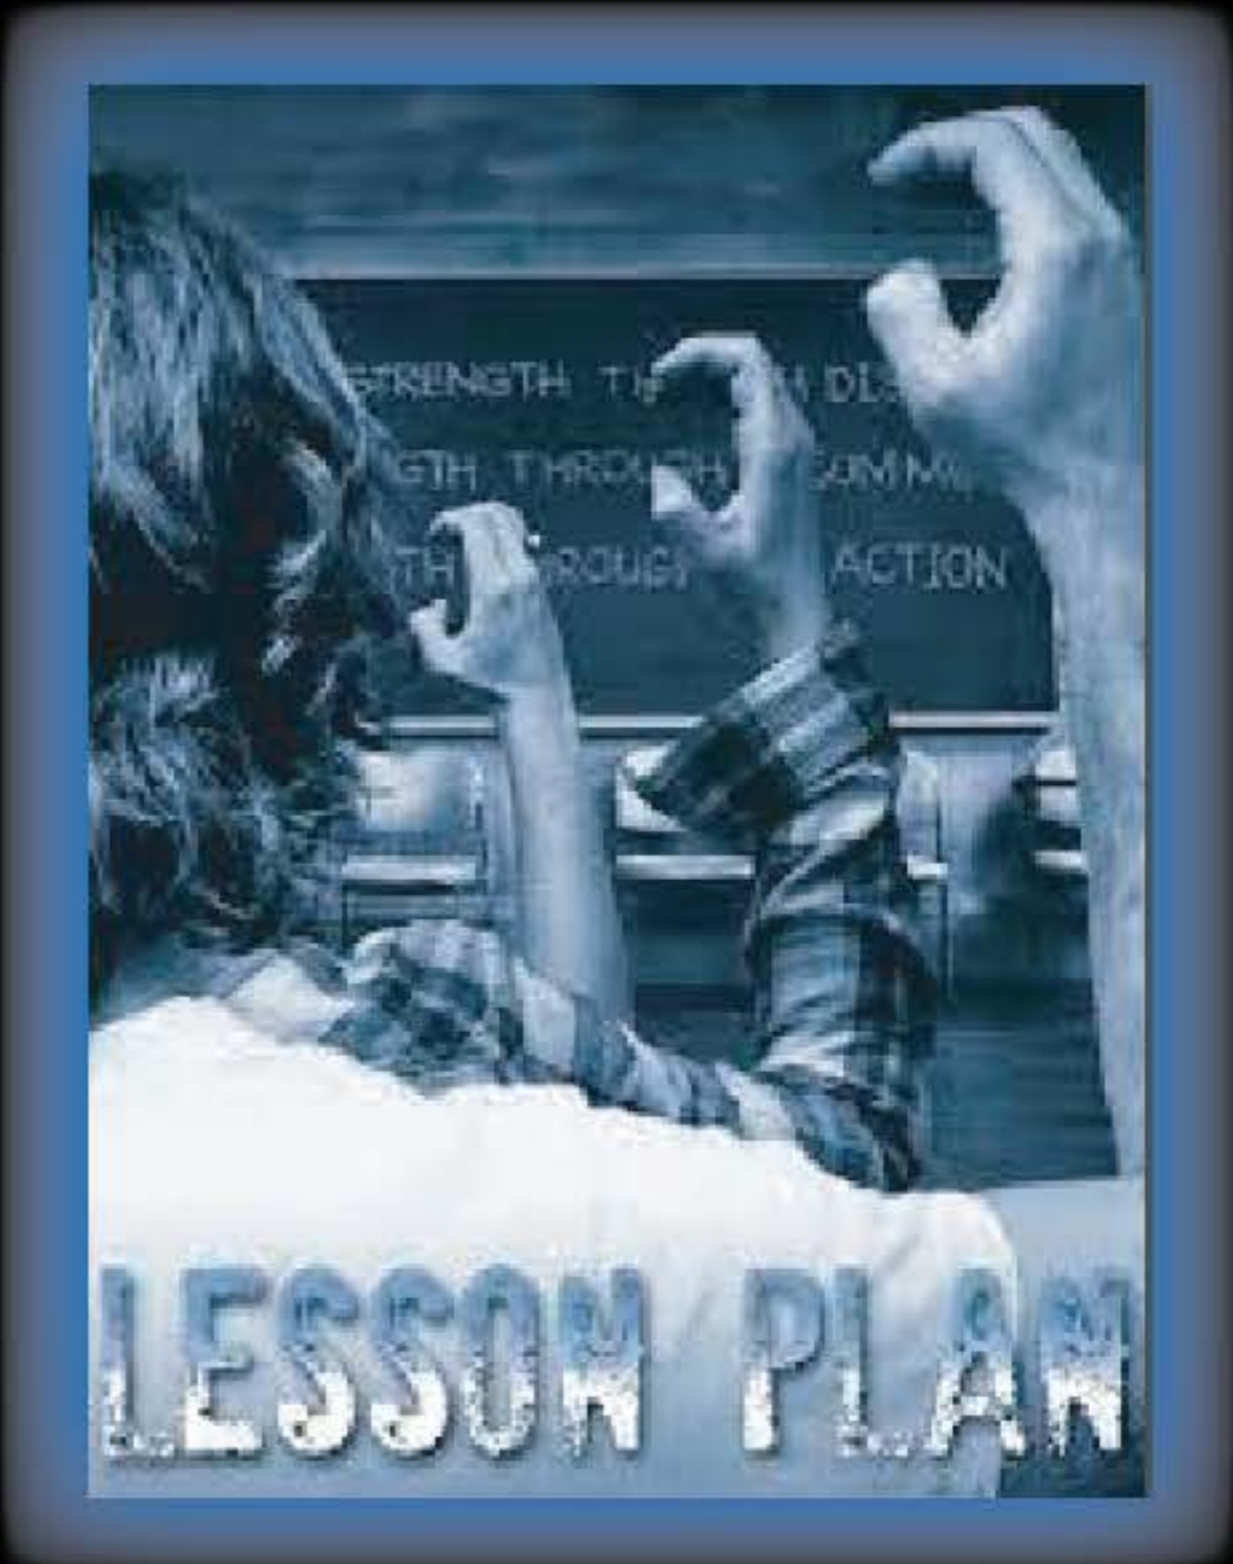

Menu

Macro vegetarian samosa dumplings, sesame noodles with steamed broccoli, available at both the Café and the Co-op Supermarket.

To order carryout: call the Co-op Deli at (301) 474-0522 by 1:00 pm on Monday, 11/15, for pick-up 4-7 pm.

Some meals may still be available on a walk-in basis if not pre-ordered.

For more information:
Reel and Meal's Facebook page:
www.facebook.com/reelandmealNDC

A special screening brought to you by the Utopia Film Festival

... live from the New Deal Café with a choice: to "be there" in person or participate via Zoom. Registration is required for either one.

At the café please wear a mask and bring proof of Covid vaccination or test. For your added safety: social distancing seating plus a UV light filtration system that kills viruses and pathogens will be in use. Seating is limited.

R&M Sponsors: Prince George's County Peace and Justice Coalition, Utopia Film Festival